

THE TOWNS AROUND.

GREENSBORO.

P. R. Goodrich is better and at work in his store again.

Monday was a day of no small importance to parties living in Greensboro, as it witnessed the marriage of S. S. Woodmaney and Mrs. Margaret Haines; and also that of Rev. Mr. Harris and Miss Mary Young. The latter couple have gone to Chicago for a few weeks for further preparatory study before beginning housekeeping.

Levi Smith is sick with a cold and quinsy sore.

Sugar makers are getting ready for work at short notice.

Dustin Eastman, an old resident of this town, passed away on Monday last after a long illness. Mr. Eastman has been a man of ability and prominence in town matters. He had just closed his third year as school director. His funeral was on Wednesday.

Mrs. Underwood of St. Johnsbury is visiting Mrs. Nathan Keniston.

HARDWICK.

Miss Elizabeth W. Noyes of this place and Herbert Farnham of St. Johnsbury were married Monday morning at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Farnham will make their home in St. Johnsbury.

The ladies of the Congregational society have received generous contributions toward furnishing their rooms in the new church, which has enabled them to get their new carpets, and the rooms will soon have a home look.

Harry Clement is still quite ill with pneumonia.

The Woman's Relief Corps held a social and supper in the G. A. R. hall Saturday evening which netted them quite a nice sum.

New sugar was served by the O. E. S. last Tuesday evening.

The concert given by the colored quartette of Storer College was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Harry Goodrich has been on the sick list the past week.

Miss Smith has been engaged to take Miss Fyler's place in the school. On Friday evening a farewell reception was given Miss Fyler in academy hall. Her many friends regret her departure.

There will be another auction of horses here in about two weeks.

Don't forget the new sugar party at the Congregational church tonight; 15 cents per plate.

Will Wells has severed his connection with George Smart and has opened a barber shop in the Marsh block.

George Smart has engaged Mr. Twombly of St. Johnsbury to work for him this summer. Mr. Smart is talking of moving to St. Johnsbury in the near future.

Use less soap; too much ruins clothes; rots them; eats fibre.

EAST HARDWICK.

Walter Gage of Burlington was in town Monday calling on old friends.

G. L. Johnson was in Boston last week. Mrs. C. J. Bell is still in Cabot, caring for her sister, Mrs. Hatch, who is very sick.

Miss Lucy Hodgden of Whitefield is visiting friends here.

Miss Jettie Farr returned from Lyndonville Friday.

Harry Hyde was the guest of friends in Albany last week.

Leslie Goodrich of St. Johnsbury is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goodrich.

Mrs. Bonette is working in the hotel at Hyde Park.

Mrs. E. G. Smith, who has been quite ill, is much better.

Ralph Hyde has sold out his confectionary store and will go to Hardwick to work.

Amos Kellogg is at work for F. T. Eastman.

HARVEY.

A. Gile of Walden has been visiting his son, George Gile, for the past week.

Mrs. Maria Haviland of Lowell, Mass., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Allen Bartlett, returns home this week.

William Bartlett has commenced to learn the painter's trade.

LUNENBURG.

Mr. Harriman of Littleton has opened a barber shop in Brown's building.

Miss Amy Hillier of Lancaster visited in town last week.

Rev. Mr. Tucker will attend the Methodist conference.

The directors of the creamery are M. V. B. Vance, Fred Turner, George Hill, James Silsby and James Dodge; auditors, M. D. Bowker, Franklin Bell.

Misses Cleona Silsby, Maud Thompson, Harry Moulton and Chester Gray attended the musical convention concert at Whitefield last week and report a jolly time.

Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Frank Bowker last Friday evening.

Mrs. Cheney has returned to her home after having spent several weeks with her daughter.

Too much soap is bad for clothes; ruins them; rots them; use less.

LYNDON.

Funeral of B. F. Lincoln.

The funeral of Hon. B. F. Lincoln was held at his late residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large number of people were present from Lyndon and surrounding towns. The services were short and impressive, and conducted by Rev. P. B. Fisk, assisted by Rev. J. C. Bodwell, of Lyndonville. The remarks of Mr. Fisk were as follows:

"The appropriate statistics are already in print, and need not be repeated. The tribute of respect fraternal is fervent. The gratitude due, no single voice could utter, nor was the left hand, even of our 'Cornelius,' permitted to know what the right was continually doing. We gladly leave it to Him who seeth in secret, who has more than begun to reward openly. If there may have been anything to avoid in the earthly career now finished, there has been much to imitate. Therefore, let us cease from man and turn to our Father in heaven."

Appropriate and touching prayers were made by both Mr. Fisk and Mr. Bodwell. Several beautiful floral offerings were made, among them were "Gates Ajar" from Congregational church and friends, palm leaves and Easter lilies from Lyndon National bank, Masonic emblem from the Masons, and numerous smaller offerings from individual friends. The remains were interred at the Lyndon Center cemetery.

J. M. Weeks left last Saturday for Lynn, Mass., where he made a short visit with his brother Charles, spending a few hours in Boston on his return and reaching here Tuesday night.

W. J. Pope has been engaged as assistant at the electric plant and began work last week.

Union Fast day services in the Congregational vestry this Friday evening, conducted by the Ladies' Missionary society.

Captain Thompson is putting the scholars of the higher department of the graded school through a course of military movements, taking the humps out of their backs and getting them ready for an exhibition drill.

Miss Charlotte Chase is home from Moody's school in Northfield, spending a week's vacation.

Committees from the churches in Lyndonville, Lyndon Center, East Lyndon, Kirby and Lyndon met in the Methodist church here last Sunday afternoon and made arrangements to canvass the town in an endeavor to increase the membership of the Sunday Schools. An organization was recently formed for this purpose and much interest is being manifested. The work of canvassing began this week Monday. It is reported that out of 2300 Protestants in this town 1750 are non-attendants at the Sunday School. An earnest effort is to be made to diminish this number.

School meeting Tuesday evening was well attended, the usual number of ladies being present. Officers elected as follows:

Henry Chase, moderator; W. H. Richardson, clerk; Rev. W. C. Johnson and J. C. Bateson, committee for three years; H. W. Lyster, Henry Phillips, C. J. Treffen, listers. It cost to run the school the past year $1700, and there is left $100 in the treasury. For school books $300 was paid. Voted to sustain 36 weeks of school and a tax of 50 cents on a dollar if paid by August first, after that 55 cents.

There's too much in too much soap—bad for clothes; use less.

LYNDON CENTER.

The citizens of this village have money enough signed to a paper to purchase 500 feet of hose and a hose cart. They are connected with the Lyndonville water system, and when they get their hose will be prepared to extinguish fires on short notice.

A. L. Barrett, of Sutton, has moved into the tenement house vacated by Mark Stone.

Mrs. Rogan from the Ville will teach the village school, which opens the 13th.

Institute opened Tuesday with fair attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Stride, from New Hampshire, have charge of Sanborn Hall.

No meeting at the Baptist church last Sunday, and the people attended services at the Ville. Rev. Mr. Lyster will probably occupy the pulpit next Sunday.

LYNDONVILLE.

The air here was full of electricity early Monday morning. A thunder storm came up about 3 o'clock and lightning struck Mrs. Wilmot's barn on Park Ave., breaking out two windows and tearing off the casings, doing about $25 worth of damage. It also struck A. A. Rand's and Philo Graves' houses on Williams street, doing very slight damage.

The encampment degree will be instituted in the Odd Fellows lodge here next Thursday evening by members from the St. Johnsbury Moose River Encampment. Several of the grand officers of the state are expected to be present.

The lodge here voted Grand Master C. A. Perry last week $100 towards finishing the repairs on the Gill Odd Fellows' home at Ludlow.

Easter will be observed by two churches. At the Congregational there will be a concert immediately after the morning service. In the evening at the Methodist church there will be a mission sermon by the pastor and special music by the choir. There will be no services at the Catholic church, the priest having to be in Wells River.

At the special town meeting Tuesday morning in Music hall D. M. Silsby was elected lister in place of F. W. Silsby, resigned. Nothing was said about the change in the place of holding the town meetings. It looks as if the question was dropped.

Prof. Elmore's dancing school closed last Friday evening with a ball in Music hall, attended by about 45 couples. An excellent spread was served at the Union House. Lyndonville orchestra furnished the music.

At the last meeting of the Board of Trade the Lyndonville Journal was instructed to issue a special edition to advertise the advantages of the town. J. H. Walbridge of St. Johnsbury has been engaged to write up the village for this edition and has commenced work.

The Board of Trade has a proposition from the Windsor Machine company to locate here, a factory equipped and furnished with power being the inducement asked for, and for which the company will pay six per cent interest. The inducement will probably require the expenditure of more money than can be raised.

The hook and ladder truck arrived last Friday. It cost $650, is a first-class machine, equipped with six ladders, one a 55 foot extension ladder, lanterns, poles, hooks, bars, axes, everything necessary to assist in fighting fires, and the boys of the fire department are proud of it.

The library has been opened for one month and the books show a list of 109 borrowers. It now has about 400 books and 75 more will be added in a couple of weeks. T. N. Vail presented the library Tuesday with five volumes of "Larned's History for Ready Reference and Topical Reading." The books contain 5,000 pages of excellent reading and are to be used only in the library room. Mr. Vail has now given the library 75 books, all in fine condition and standard work.

Burglaries are getting too frequent for comfort in this locality. Four times have different houses been broken into and money amounting to about $100 and three watches stolen. One person recently went to bed leaving $40 and a watch in his clothes and the next morning had but $10, the burglar leaving him a little to betray expenses. Last Monday night Mr. Vail's house was broken into, and Mr. Vail, who boards there, was relieved of a fine gold watch and a few dollars. The movements of one or two persons are regarded with suspicion and they are liable to be called upon to explain.

Mrs. E. Bigelow, milliner, has rented the middle store in Masonic block, and will move in next week. A photographer has rented a room on the second floor, which makes every room in this block occupied.

C. A. Squires expects to be carrying on his restaurant business in his rooms in Stern's block inside of three weeks.

Juniper Branch, D. of R., have received handsome new robes, costing $250, not including gloves and slippers. They are requested to meet Saturday afternoon in Odd Fellows' hall, to try on the new robes and practice the floor walk.

Wannalancet Tribe of Red Men will dedicate their new wigwag April 24 with a smoke talk and dance. Corn and venison will be served and all are invited to attend.

The birthday party at the Congregational church Tuesday evening was an unqualified success. Over 150 partook of an excellent supper. After this they listened to a fine entertainment by the church quartette, Miss Jennie A. Silsby, reader; Miss Walter, organist; and Mr. Burpee, violinist. Every number was choice and nearly every one called for an encore.

Miss J. Silsby of Lunenburg, who is a pupil of the New England conservatory of elocution, was the favorite at once and pleased all by her graceful appearance and delightful rendering of her selections. We bespeak for her a bright future. Miss Walter surprises everyone by the mastery she has so soon gained over the pipe organ. Mr. Burpee is one of, if not the best, cornet player in this section, and is always listened to with pleasure. It is needless to speak of the favor with which the church quartette, consisting of Messrs. Balch, Frost, Wilson and Hutchins, are always received. They are steadily growing in popularity. Out of the 200 bags sent out with the invitations, 100 were returned containing the number of pennies representing the ages of the donors. The society realized from the occasion $69.49, with the other 100 bags to hear from.

There's money in using less soap—clothes too.

MCDONOE FALLS.

Mrs. A. B. Perry and daughter Virginia have gone to Somerville, Mass., and will spend a week with friends there.

Miss Florence Ricker visited at Woodsville this week.

Miss Bella Sengert of South Ryegate was the guest of Miss Inez Duncan over Sunday.

The Christian Endeavor will have a concert next Sunday evening.

Those who have been having the grip are Mrs. Fred Colby, Ethel Guthrie and Mrs. Duncan.

P. B. Van Dyke has moved the small shop that has been standing near the boarding house, up north of his barn at the bridge house.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at Mrs. Houghton's Wednesday.

George Winch has been appointed administrator of Dan McCuaig's estate. C. I. Smith and Dr. Gibson, commissioners.

Mr. Whitecomb has moved from the bridge house up into a tenement in the brick house, and Mr. Shepherd has moved into the bridge house. Albert Nelson has moved from the upstairs tenement in Field's house on to the Randall farm in Monroe, which place he will have charge of this summer.

There's money in using less soap—clothes too.

PASSUMPSIC.

Joseph Louie passed away last Friday morning after a short illness, at the advanced age of 82 years. For nearly half a century he has been identified with this place in one capacity or another, and in all that time has had the respect and esteem of those with whom he came in contact. He leaves a widow and three children: Mrs. Geo. M. Kerr of Danville, Mrs. Frank Davis of Passumpsic, and Elmore J. Louie, who resides with his parents. The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to be able to report the sick as improving. Mrs. Symes is much better, as also her husband, John McGill is much the same, and F. H. Shepherd, who was taken worse Sunday last, is reported better. We hope as the weather grows warmer, their recovery will be accelerated.

The Christian Endeavor society will give a sugar party at the vestry this (Friday) evening, to which all are invited. The amount cleared by the society at the concert last week was a little over eleven dollars instead of eight as reported last week.

Miss Kate Puffer of St. Johnsbury was in town this week visiting Josephine Woods.

T. H. Brown of Brattleboro is visiting his son Maurice.

B. F. Weeks of St. Johnsbury has purchased of W. L. Russell one-half interest in the store in this place. We shall expect to see business boom with two such enterprising men here, and we shall be glad to welcome others like them.

Use less soap.

PEACHAM.

Mrs. Abbie Hunt has bought Mrs. T. G. Whitehill's house at the Corner, price $700.

Miss Clara Holmes went to Portland, Maine, last Tuesday.

Deacon and Mrs. Martin went to Houghton, N. J., the first of this week to their son Edward's, whose wife is very low with consumption.

E. R. Mackay was in Montpelier the first of the week.

Mrs. B. S. Hooker has gone to Boston.

There will be a sugar party at the Congregational church parlors next Tuesday evening, April 7. Every one invited.

The "pie supper" last Tuesday evening was well attended, and much enjoyed by all. The programme for the entertainment was good, consisting of several recitations by Sam Carrier of Danville, also several pieces of music.

Use less soap; you use too much.

SOUTH RYEGATE.

Charles E. Green, who has been sick for over a year with diabetes, passed away on Friday night. The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, Rev. John J. Hall officiating.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage yesterday afternoon.

Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday. Preparatory lecture on Saturday afternoon.

ST. JOHNSBURY EAST.

Mrs. Sarah DeCamp of Burke visited friends in this village the past week.

The Margaret Missionary society will meet with Mrs. G. W. Dodge Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Richards of Plymouth, N. H., arrived at this place Monday night, and is caring for her mother, Mrs. Sylvanus Owen, who is very sick.

Mrs. Ruth Graham of Colebrook, N. H., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham.

Miss Stella Gates is visiting friends in Lisbon, N. H. Miss Gates will teach the "Russell Hollow" school in Kirby this spring.

Charles Owens is making quite extensive repairs on his house.

Mrs. G. W. Patterson and children intend going to Newtonville, Mass., Saturday to spend a few weeks.

Harry Hovey is quite ill, and it is feared he will have typhoid fever.

An Easter concert is being prepared and will be given in the church Sunday morning.

Miss Carrie Griswold is at home for a few weeks.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTRE.

The Epworth League invites every body to a sugar social and pastor's visit this Friday evening at the Methodist vestry. This is the last opportunity to visit Mr. Chase this conference year so let all improve it. Sugar 10 cents.

T. F. Powers died at the home of his son last Thursday evening, at the age of 74 years. He was a native of Glover, and had resided in this county the last 35 years. He was a miller by trade, and had at different times had charge of some of the grist mills in this vicinity. He leaves two daughters and four sons: Eugene Powers of New Orleans, Mrs. Juliette Dykeman and Mrs. Hallie Spinyer of Lynn, Mass.; Fred and Curtis Powers of Olcott, and Henry Powers of this village.

E. H. Hallett and F. C. Prescott sawed 25 cords of four foot wood twice in two in 9½ hours with their steam power. The boys hope with a little practice to be able to do a fair day's work.

WEST WATERFORD.

A. B. Carpenter has gone to Pawtucket, R. I.

Stephen R. Hovey returned to New York City Monday. On Friday evening the friends and neighbors called upon him to remind him that they had not forgotten the time when he used to live here.

The farmers are now getting ready for sugaring, but we have not yet heard of any one making any sugar.

Mrs. A. B. Carpenter has been quite sick but is now better.

John Farnham has been quite sick with the grip, but is now around the house.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
